This presentation is intended to provide business owners, HR directors, and supervisors a better understanding of legal obligations and recommended steps to take when an employee reports a work injury. In addition, the presentation will address steps to take to ensure the TPA or insurer administering the work comp claim is providing the best service for the employer and properly handling each claim. Finally, the presentation will provide an overview of other employment laws that an employer must ensure are being followed after a work injury.

Learning Objectives

- Understand steps the employer should take when an injury occurs.
- Discuss solutions to common issues that can arise during the claim process with the work comp insurer or TPA.
- Identify other employment laws that apply when an employee is injured at work.
